First Edition Design eBook Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Selling God s Way is the first book that explains how to apply the word of God to all aspects of selling. Most people never consider using the Bible as an instruction book for selling. Most people rely on their intellect or intuition to serve as the final authority regarding any decision that s sales or work related. But, if we sell God s way biblical principles lead and God becomes the final authority regarding all sales activity. This equips and empowers us to achieve supreme sales success. Now, we can ask God in prayer how to find prospects. We can trust the Lord to supply the energy needed to make sales calls. Through studying Scripture we ll find specific instructions for handling objections and closing sales. We can rely on faith to lead us in the best thing to say or do while selling. Throughout this book I use biblical scripture and stories to deliver instructions for selling successfully. Any wisdom that the Bible bestows stays the most useful and valuable forever. Why sell God s way? Most salespeople work independently, at times autonomously. How a salesperson behaves while interacting with a customer or potential customer is ultimately their responsibility. All salespeople need the option of operating within a set of principles and processes that incorporate righteousness. These principles and processes must also guide them to maximize their income and build the best possible business relationships. This book gives salespeople that option. Anyone using this book for those purposes should be extremely satisfied. But the primary reason I want sellers to choose God s way is directly related to accountability. In the Bible...
