Virtual Artists Collective, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Paul Friedrichs A Goldfinch Instant is in the spirit of Basho but it breathes with Henry David Thoreau as well. Haikus from Concord to India are embedded in a prose poem that will be of particular interest to readers familiar with Friedrichs poetry as well as his work in anthropology and linguistics and that will be a delight for readers who encounter Friedrich here for the first time. It begins when a goldfinch instant / on the top of a young fir / hit by first sunlight triggers a memory of an afternoon with fourteen year old Nicky, one of Friedrichs children to whom the collection is dedicated. From the North Carolina of Charles Fraziers Cold Mountain to Han Shan in distant China to the New England of Friedrichs childhood, to Mexico, to India, to the outskirts of Chicago with a nephew and his bird expert father. totally serious about red-tailed hawks and owls in the snowy fields with the cold March wind blowing. totally focused because its fun to be out there with moles and voles under the dead marsh grass and harriers cooperating with Athenas birds coursing through the twilight. and because yet farther than those frozen wastes are other skies and other hawks like the three Thoreau describes on one page that come to us not as Hemingways moments of truth .but as transitory experiences you cling to with bare hands over the abyss when the insects and then the plastics take over and miracles like Nicky will have seen the dawn of their death. Totally serious, totally focused, because its fun to be out there beautifully describes the spirit of Friedrichs work.
