THE SPIRIT OF BUENASUERTE

Dog Ear Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 228 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Imagine a young, intelligent woman who has immigrated to the United States in hopes of living the American dream. She has put herself through school and finally found her path in life. Success seems to be almost within her grasp. But Candelaria Enredame is a magnet for trouble. Her Santeria powers are strong, but very unpredictable. As a result, her life is a continual rollercoaster of excitement and danger, a fast-paced combination of comedy, mystery, and romance. She lands a great job as the accountant for a new luxury resort and casino, but the place is cursed. The new casino is being constructed on old tribal land and haunted by the ghost of a massacred Indian maiden. Legend has it that there is Spanish treasure buried somewhere in the hills that surround the place, the last remains of a violent confrontation with the Indians centuries ago. Authors Biography Lee Roberts is an accounting manager for a large international company with more than twenty years of experience in global business and finance. He is a licensed C. P. A. and holds a M. B. A. from the University of Tennessee as well as a B. S. degree in Information Technology. Lee is originally from the Southeastern U. S. , but his wife is from the grand historical city of Cartagena, Colombia. Their life together is a bilingual mix of North and South American culture that combines the best of both worlds. Lees writing draws on his years of business experience as well as the many interesting people that he meets along the way. His stories are based on the fascinating dynamics of life and celebrate the great mysteries of human diversity. Lee currently lives in North...
