Therefore, let us keep the feast, and c. , ul in die Patch. Then shall be said or sung, the Venite as we now have it. Then shall be said or sung This Rubric, as altered by Bishop Cosin, has great historical value, for the illustration that it gives of the mode in which the Psalms were intended to be said or sung. It is as follows: Then shall be said or sung this Psalme following (except on Easter Day, when another Anthem is appointed), one verse by the priest, and another by the people; and the same order shall be observed in all psalmes and hymns throughout this Book. But in colledges, and where there is a Quire, the same shall be sung by sides, as hath bin accustomed. In the third series of his notes on the Prayer Book, there are also these remarks on the response, And our mouth shall shew forth Thy praise: This is the answer of all the people. In the second book of Edward VI. the word Choir is every where put for our word Answer; and by making this answer, they promise for themselves that they will not sit still to hear the psalms and hymns read only to them, as matter of their instruction; but that they will bear a part in them with the priest, and keep up the old custom still of singing, and answering verse by verse, as being specially appointed...
