God s Dog

By Diego Marani

DEDALUS LTD, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 196 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. God s Dog is Diego Marani s first detective novel, introducing Domingo Salazar, a Dominican monk, who is a Vatican secret agent. Italy is now a theocratic state ruled by the Vatican, whose secret agents are dedicated to root out non-believers and heretics. The sanctity of life is being challenged by a cell of dissidents helping sufferers commit euthanasia. The crime genre is thronging with honest, likeable cops working within corrupt regimes but the writers of such novels give themselves a get-out-of-jail-free card by allowing us to sympathise with their conflicted protagonists, chafing against their brutal paymasters. Marani (in Judith Landry s able translation), however, is more audacious, granting his anti-hero a terrifying religious fervour, unquestioning of the status quo. What s more, he is an intelligent, intuitive investigator, skilled at using psychology against his victims. Which is what makes the success of this energetic and trenchant novel all the more impressive, however reptilian its protagonist. Marani s church authorities here propose an interfaith movement called Bible-Koranism designed to stamp out secularism; as Salazar calmly explains this historical necessity to non-believers,...
