Excerpt: . . . 5 and or export promotion schemes in downturns. In the Depression of the 1930s, for instance, members of the TMA collectively agreed to reduce the workweek and not to hoard work individually. Today, New York Citys Garment Industry Development Corporation influences its members exports through overseas export missions and other 14 activities. (3) Skill Upgrading. A third function involves upgrading skills and productive capacity of member firms and other actors. These activities achieve adaptive cost savings for groups of firms moving into new or improved product areas. For instance, Chicagos TMA has operated a training program for its members workers for at least forty years and took the lead locally in diffusing information about numerically controlled and computer-numerically controlled technology in the industry in the 1960s and 1970s. The Great Lakes Manufacturing Technology Center (GLMTC) in the Cleveland area, a creation of the State of Ohio, offers seminars and workshops on 15 computer applications in metalworking operations to local manufacturers. (4) Research and Development. Collectively promoting research...
