HEXMOND, a town in the Netherlands, province of North Brabant, lies 21 miles south-east from Boise-le-Duc, on the Aa and South Willemsvaart. It has a good haven. The principal industries are the manufacture of cotton, woollen, and linen fabrics, cotton-printing, dyeing, calendering, beer-brewing, and c. The pop. is nearly 7000. HELMONT, Jan Baptista Van, Lord of Merode, Royelureh, Oorschot, and Pellities, an eminent Belgian chemist, was born at Brussels in 1511, and died near Vilvorde in 1674. He went through the regular course of study at the university of Louvain, and on the completion of his education, he was offered and accepted the chair of surgery in that university, the duties of which he discharged for two years. The study of the works of Paracelsus seems to have turned his special attention to chemistry and...
