Strife and Progress: Portfolio Strategies for Managing Urban Schools

By Paul T. Hill, Christine Campbell, Betheny Gross

Brookings Institution. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Strife and Progress: Portfolio Strategies for Managing Urban Schools, Paul T. Hill, Christine Campbell, Betheny Gross, Deficient urban schooling remains one of America's most pressing --and stubborn --public policy problems. This important new book details and evaluates a radical and promising new approach to K-12 education reform. Strife and Progress explains for a broad audience the ""portfolio strategy"" for providing urban education --its rationale, implementation, and results. Under the portfolio strategy, cities use anything that works, indifferent to whether schools are run by the public district or private entities. It combines traditional modes of schooling with newer methods, including chartering and experimentation with schools making innovative use of people and technology. Urban districts try to make themselves magnets for new talent, recruiting educators and career switchers looking to make a difference for poor children. The portfolio strategy creates interesting new bedfellows: people who think that government should oversee public education align with those advocating choice, competition, and entrepreneurship. It cuts across political lines and engages city governments and civic assets (e.g., philanthropies, businesses, universities) much more deeply than earlier reform initiatives. New York and New Orleans were portfolio pioneers, but the idea...
