THE WORLD OF MEN offers three plays by G. Michael Blahnik in one package. THE 20TH QUARTER-ANNUAL HORSE CONTEST concerns the emotional growth of two long-time friends who meet annually to play a game of basketball that is more like a creative bonding ritual than a competitive game. This particular game serves to be a turning point in the lives of each of the men as they try to confront parents, wives, and their past glory days in order to gain some direction in life. NO TOMORROW addresses the issue of lying in malefemale relationships with all the intensity of a hurricane. Three friends, two females and one male, meet in a pub to chat and land up caught in the vortex of emotions that will provoke laughter that might be surprising. SEX IN THE LIBRARY is a searing humorous drama that poses the uncomfortable question of whether or not the sexual revolution of the 60s has produced sexual behavior today that no one had ever suspected or wanted. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
